

Join us for an adventurous summer of dynamic themes and fun in the sun!

Week 1: Camp goes Camping - The Great Outdoors

July 5-8

Crisp air, trees, birds, butterflies, and s'mores... Who could want more? Get your backpack ready and let's set up our tents, The Little School is going camping! We'll be getting the campfire started as we learn how much fun a week of the great outdoors can be!

Week 2: Down on the Farm

July 11 - 15

Grab you partner and do-si-do on down to Old McDonald's Farm! Campers will be amazed as The Little School transforms in to a Barnyard Bonanza! We'll learn how to milk a cow, explore animal sounds, plant crops, taste our homegrown vegetables and much more farm fun! We'll even have a visit from some barnyard friends with a live petting zoo at the end of our theme!

Week 3: Little School Little Artists

July 18-22

This week Campers will be introduced to the wonderful world of the great masters of art. We will be inspiring each child's creativity and set their limitless imagination loose by introducing them to famous painters and their most popular paintings.

Students will be transformed into little Picassos, Da Vincis and Van Goghs after exploring famous paintings to understand the artist's styles and reproducing their own works. Campers will be engaging all their senses by exploring lively colors, textures, and techniques. By mixing art history with art skills summer campers will create their very own masterpieces worthy of any museum!

Week 4: Transportation-Off We Go!

July 25 - 29

All Aboard! Come along as we traverse the country by train, cross the ocean by boat, and travel the world by plane this week. Campers will be making their very own Passport as they learn about the many different modes of transportation and "travel" to distant lands. As we learn about planes, trains, and automobiles everyone will even have the opportunity to build their favorite and take it for a spin!
